15% TO 20% OF CHILDREN
HAVE A 'SENSITIVE'
PERSONALITY.
IS YOURS ONE OF THEM?

Sometimes labelled 'shy' or 'quirky', sensitive kids are often misunderstood by parents and teachers. Is your child one who asks lots of questions, feels 'big' emotions, reacts to things that other kids barely notice and finds it hard to manage playground politics?

Psychologist Robyn Fallshaw has helped hundreds of sensitive kids like yours learn how to use their unique gifts so that they can thrive at home, succeed at school and enjoy life!

In this FREE 2 hour parent seminar, she will share practical ideas, commonsense tips and take home resources to help you to support your sensitive child.
